

Ms Gutierrez,

I have completed my review of the Release of Information (ROI) form. I am writing to formally decline signing the document in its current state due to several overreaching clauses that compromise my legal standing:

Total Liability Waiver: The form currently requires me to "hold harmless" the agency for any handling of my data, with no outlined process for dispute resolution or accountability. I cannot agree to a total opt-out of liability for the agency.

Waiver of Statutory Protections: The language requiring me to sign away my State and Federal privacy protections (including HIPAA) as a condition of advocacy is unacceptable. My consent for you to speak to a provider does not constitute a permanent waiver of my legal rights.

Lack of Arbitration or Recourse: There is no provision for addressing potential data breaches or administrative errors.

I am happy to sign a Standard HIPAA Release that is narrowly tailored to my pulmonology referral and insurance dispute. However, I will not sign any document that requires me to indemnify the agency or forfeit my civil protections.

Please let me know if OCHA has a standard, limited ROI that respects these boundaries so we can move forward with the advocacy.

Best regards,

Celestia Quixs
