Hello Celestia,

Thank you for your patience. I wanted to share an update regarding your request. Attached are the voicemails that were successfully recovered. I will continue to look into whether any additional voicemails from prior to the end of April may still be available and will keep you informed of any findings. Please know that I will be out of the office tomorrow and, due to the holiday, will return on Tuesday of next week. I will follow up with you at that time to review any additional updates and go over the findings to your other concerns. If you have any questions in the meantime, please feel free to let me know.

Very truly yours,

Robert Ramirez

Hello, Robert,

The voicemails attached to your email are voicemails after my voice mail account was wiped. They are voicemails I had not even listened to them via the voicemail system; because, I refuse to set up my voicemail after T-Mobile wiped the settings. The first one, is a T-Mobile automated voicemail; and, the last two are from you.

Kind Regards,

Celestia
